The probation officer believes that the offender has violated the following condition(s) of supervision:

Violation Number Nature of Noncompliance

1

Special Condition # 14: The defendant is prohibited from returning to the United States without advance legal permission from the United States Attorney General or his designee. Should the defendant reenter the United States, the defendant is required to report to the probation office within 72 hours of reentry.Supporting Evidence: On December 12, 2016, Mr. Barajas-Pulido entered the United States at Calexico West Port of Entry in Calexico, California, and was detained by United States Customs and Border Protection.

On December 12, 2016, Mr. Barajas-Pulido arrived at the Calexico West Port of Entry in Calexico, California. He advised a United States Customs and Border Patrol (CBP) officer that he was requesting asylum. CBP officers conducted a records check on Mr. Barajas-Pulido and discovered he had several deportations and removals from the United States and he was on probation with the United States Probation Office.

CBP officer's asked Mr. Barajas-Pulido if he knew he was on probation and could not re-enter the United States without a pardon and he stated, yes. He also stated to CBP officer's he was requesting asylum because he did not have a place to reside in Mexico. A CBP officer stated new no charges will be filed due to the asylum request.
